

This message is a personal invitation and has been sent to gender specialists of Partos member organisations and other relevant institutions, ISS/EUR and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Invitation

Prince Claus Chair Seminar
Gender Based Violence and Global Governance
Encountering the politicized framing in research, policy and practice

8 June 2016, 12:30-18:00 hrs

This symposium is a joint initiative organised by ISS/EUR and Partos as part of a co-operation to facilitate exchange between academics, policy makers and practitioners working in the fields of international and national development.

Professor Rema Hammami, Prince Claus Chair holder 2005-2006, will share her insights on the politicized framing of GBV and strategies to deal with this, followed by discussions with researchers, practitioners and policy makers working in the field of gender in national and international development. The aim is to exchange insights on strategies to deal with this politicized framing of GBV.

The symposium will be held at the Paleisstraat 8, 2514JA The Hague.

More detailed information can be found in the attached rationale and programme. (Language of the event: English)

You are kindly requested to register before 15 April) through the Eventbrite website. Places are limited.

Contact: Lucia Helsloot (lucia@partos.nl) and Dubravka Zarkov (zarkov@iss.nl)