

Call for Abstracts "Linking Research, Policy and Practice - Students and NGOs 2016"

Introduction

Share-Net kindly invites you to the 5th annual meeting "Linking Research, Policy and Practice - Students and NGOs". This meeting will bring together policymakers and practitioners working on sexual and reproductive health and rights (SRHR) including HIV and AIDS in international development and students who have finalized or who are interested to conduct their Master's research on SRHR and HIV and AIDS. This year the meeting will be organised on 28 September 2016 in Amsterdam. As the annual meeting will be organised within framework of a Share-Net activity week focused on comprehensive sexuality education, youth-friendly health services and gender-based violence, we particularly encourage submissions focused on these three SRHR themes. The programme and venue will be announced in beginning of September.

Call for Abstracts

Share-Net invites Master students who have recently finalized their research, or will finalize before September, to present their findings and/or share their field work experiences at this meeting. Abstracts can be submitted to info@share-net.nl. The submission should include your name, name of institution, email address and phone number. The abstract should start with a title and be structured as follows: introduction including objectives and theory, methods, results, and conclusion and discussion including recommendations for policy and/or practice. The maximum length of the abstract is 250 words.

Abstract submission deadline: Friday, 26 August 2016

Candidates will be notified before: Friday, 9 September 2016
