Meeting: Prepare for AIDS 2018

Dear all,

As we all know the 22nd International AIDS conference will be organised from 23-27 July 2018 in Amsterdam. We would like to invite interested Share-Net members and beyond to come together to hear about the preparations for this important event and to know who are the actors, what is being done, what can we do as NGOs, research institutes and universities. There will be enough time for all your questions, ideas and discussions.

The following people will join to explain and engage in the discussion:

- Monique Middelhoff, Senior HIV and Health Advisor, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and member of the Conference Coordinating Committee (CCC). She will introduce us to the organisation, the representatives and important data. She will also speak about the need to involve the EU, Eastern-Europe and Central Asia (EECA) more into the topic of HIV/AIDS and AIDS 2018.
- Liselotte Zoetmulder, AIDS 2018 Project Manager, will speak about the background of the International AIDS Conferences.
- Louise van Deth, AidsFonds and Local/Regional Community and Leadership Programme Committee Co-chair and CCC member will share her ideas on what is important to focus on.
- Peter van Rooijen, chair of the Amsterdam Planning Group, can explain the key players in the Netherlands in the preparatory process and their activities.

Time: 15.00 – 17.00

Location: KIT, Mauritskade 63, Amsterdam
