Respectful maternity care in various settings

On the 7th of November, Share-Net International will host a Maternal Health – Thematic meeting with various questions to be posed:

- Why should we define quality of maternity care beyond survival to include a respectful experience of women?
- How can a human right approach and respectful maternity care be translated into local practice and research?
- What are effective approaches to provide respectful maternity care in different context, including fragility states?
- Which framework can we use to provide respectful maternity services?

Date: 7 November 2017

Time: 13.00 – 19.00h
