Making inclusion work!

Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR) and Disability

This expert meeting is organized as part of a two-day working visit by Catalina Devandas Aguilar, UN special rapporteur for the Rights of People with Disabilities. Ms. Devandas will hold the opening key note speech, followed by a speech by a representative from the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs (to be confirmed).

The second part of the expert meeting will see the presentation of a publication on SRHR and disability, containing case studies, followed by policy recommendations, and specific contact information. In the final part of the expert meeting all participants are invited to share their thoughts, suggestions and policy recommendations during a round of so-called World Café's. Moderators will be present to collect and summarize your remarks.

RSVP before the 16th of November 2017 here. For more information, contact Ewoud Poerink dcdd@dcdd.nl (subject: 'DEVANDAS').

Language will be English & registration is free of charge.
