

SHARE-NET INTERNATIONAL SMALL GRANTS CALL 2021

1. INTRODUCTION

Share-Net International, the Knowledge Platform for Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR), aims to “strengthen linkages between research, policy and practice through sharing, generating, translating and promoting the use of knowledge for the development of better policies and practices in SRHR”.

The Share-Net International Small Grants Facility is one of the methodologies to support knowledge management activities amongst the members. The grants provide funding for applied research, documentation of practices and the creation of knowledge products for improving policy and practice in SRHR. They also provide the opportunity to improve the work of Share-Net International members and facilitate the development of knowledge products which are otherwise difficult to get funded.

Activities proposed by members must contribute to achieve the knowledge related outcomes of Share-Net International, which are as follows:

1. Policy makers, practitioners and researchers have better access to SRHR information and knowledge.
2. Researchers address scientifically, politically and practically relevant knowledge gaps in SRHR.
3. Actual and effective learning is taking place between and in countries among policy makers, practitioners and researchers.
4. Knowledge is applied into evidence informed SRHR programmes, policies and practices.

2. SMALL GRANTS CALL 2021

The focus of the small grants of 2021 is steered towards innovation and piloting new approaches, translating existing knowledge into products and/or promote its use to influence and improve SRHR practice and policy.

The objectives of the grant can be three-fold:

1. Investigate and test new and innovative approaches in SRHR and identify unheard perspectives (i.e. knowledge gaps in the linkages between SRHR and gender equality, youth and/or links with other SDGs).
2. Translation of research into products and materials that will be used to facilitate tangible change in policy or practice. This process can build on research done by our members in the field of SRHR.
3. Documenting actual changes in policy and practice, related to work done through earlier Share-Net International grants or work of Share-Net members, and how these have been implemented.

It is crucial to show how the grants will contribute to changes in policy or practice, and to include an analysis of when and how this change will be effectuated, including the expected benefit for specific SRHR targets and groups. This should be clearly described in your application. The proposal should therefore include a communication plan for achieving these results.

All the work done and products developed through these grants are co-owned by Share-Net International and should be available for use by Share-Net International at any time in the future for marketing, promotion or any other activities. The name and logo of Share-Net International should be mentioned in all products and communications.

3. FUNDING AVAILABLE

The maximum total amount available for this Small Grant Facility round is up to 95,000 euros. The upper limit per grant is 10,000 euros. However, we do encourage applicants to budget as carefully as possible, so that more proposals can be granted. This grant is a lump sum in euros that will be executed according to Dutch law (VAT and other legal obligations).

4. ELIGIBILITY

The application must:

1. Be submitted and led by a Share-Net International or country hub member. Organisations or individual members can be in the lead for only one proposal per funding round. However, they are allowed to participate in any number of grants. Non-members can be co-applicants, however we encourage organisations to become member of Share-Net International. Lead organisations have the authority to subcontract other organisations or consultants to carry out specific parts of the work. The lead applicant has the final responsibility in terms of output delivery and monitoring and subcontracting.
2. Be relevant and contribute to the Share-Net International aims as mentioned above.
3. Comply with one of the three small grants objectives as mentioned above.
4. Include a communication and dissemination plan for reaching policy and practice change for different target groups.
5. Be of interest in Bangladesh, Burundi, Jordan, the Netherlands, or any low or middle-income country.
6. Be for any amount up to 10,000 euros.
7. Ensure that all activities are completed before the end of 2021 (final reports submitted no later than December 15, 2021).

Furthermore, by applying to this call, the organisations/individuals agree to make sure that they

- are able to receive funds from outside their home country (please check this link)
- have a bank account in name of the applicant that can receive euros.

We especially encourage youth-led organisations to apply and value proposals that demonstrate strong local and/or cross-country partnerships.
